“ My thoughts embrace Tony's family who stood by and supported him during his time of need. I am so sorry for you loss. Tony was an inspirational trail builder. His passion and devotion to the construction of the Cumberland Trail while he was trail manager was legendary. Those who were privileged to work with him learned trail building from a Master. From 2005 to 2014 I never missed a chance to work with him and learn. He was a great friend and will be missed. See you on the trail Tony.

“ I shall miss Tony as a true friend and hiking trail enthusiast. I shall always cherish the many hours we spent together carving out a path for the Cumberland Trail. He had the ability to forge ahead in spite of great difficulties. Yet he was always a most caring person. Truly he will be missed by all who knew him.
