“ Uncle Dean was my best friend. He was a mentor to my 2 boys. They idolized him. "Uncle Dean could fix anything", they'd say!
He will be truly missed and remembered. I love you Dean! But you already knew that <3

“ Deano,
We shared a lot of laughs. I'm gonna miss calling and picking on you. You were a true FRIEND!

As bright as Dean's light was here on Earth, surely, Heaven shines much Brighter this day!

Enjoy Heaven Deano!

“ When we first met Dean, Johnsie & I had just moved down to Tn. where Johnsie started driving for Dean's Dad Carl. Dean & Tim were running around the house of Johnsie's new employer having fun. As the years went by Johnsie & Dean had a special friendship. Dean would hitch a ride with Johnsie on his runs before he had his license. "Hot Rod" was His nickname. Johnsie always called him "my little Hero". I can still hear his slow drawl when he would call to give Johnsie wake up calls. He was a prankster & loved to have fun. Dean was such a caring person with a tremendous heart. He made a difference in our lives. We are so lucky that he picked us to be his friends.Susan& Debra, Carl & Barb we are so sorry. He will always be with us all.

“ There are memories that I have of Dean will make anyone have a little crooked smile when they hear them. Most of which when he was my neighbor and I watched him play with his beloved Great Danes - Gracie & Molly. Dean would roll around on the ground with them like a kid and the dogs (his babies, as he would call them) would jump on his and lick him like a popsicle...Dean laughing the whole time. When times were good or tough - Dean was there for us as an employer, a neighbor - but most of all - as a friend and I stand before all to say I will never forget what Dean and his family did for us in our dark times that life gave us. My heart goes out to Susan and Debra - there are no words that can ease you pain, but the knowledge that you have the support of friends and family and most of all your Faith. Forever keep your faith and it will see you through the darkest times. In closing, I only have one thing to say... To Dean - my bald headed friend - you will be missed...I wish to you fun frolics with Molly, for I know she was there waiting for you at those Chrome Gates...

To Susan & Debra - I might be miles away, but heart & prayers are with you...
