“ Ernest Writtenberry - "Bug" was a man of his word, always willing to help anyone, would give you the shirt off his back, he enjoyed family get togethers and cookouts, going out to eat, going to antique car shows, playing the slot machines, trading and buying autos, a lifetime of truck driving and most of all loved his family. "Bug" will always hold a dear spot in my heart and I am blessed to cherish the memories that will always keep him alive in my heart and till we met again.
