“ Glenn I miss you /: I'm late on this but you died April 28th of last year and on April 28th of this year I lit some candles and wrote you a letter and let it go, I'm hoping by now you would have got it so I'm going to be short on this well my kinda short. How you doing up there? I just don't know how to let you go. Just to keep you in memory has been the most easiest thing I've ever had to do. You know it doesn't seem so easy for me anymore to smile when I think about you, and it doesn't seem so long ago, everything just makes me think about you. I don't really have much to say except you will always be in my heart and I miss you so much Glenn, in my eyes you were wonderful no matter what you did and I'm not saying this in ways of being together just as a person ,yeah you had your times of ignercyy but you had some special in you to.no one saw you the wayidid I completely take back everything I said even though it's too late but I just want you to know at least one more time I

“ this is my third time speaking well its been about eight months now since you been gone and the pain still hasnt gone away. .everynight and day i think about you constently its real hard when your not here. i know we had something more than a friendship but im not even trying to be like that about this but i loveyou so much your the main reason i keep my head up even when its not okay. you taught me ta be the person i am and no body else always put a smile on my face like you did you were there when no one else wasnt. i wish i could bring you back and take back what i said, but i know it wont happen so ill just keep my picture of yhu and all the memories yhu left me with. its just.. glenn i dont know where to go without you here. i cant even imagine what kinda pain yhu went through and im truely sorry. if there was just one time when me and yhu just listened to eachother. yhu promised me everyday that yhud never leave but it isnt yhur fault when yhu put your head to the sky and kissed everybody goodbye. theres times where id sit in muh room and just replay and replay. tears runned down my face and still do and just the other day i blammed myself over it but im the only one who truely knows why yhu left this crulle crucial world. i donno if i should truely let out the secret or just hold it but idk how to put it . i justt.. still feel the same when yhu first past away people asked, gave faces, rummors started, everything happened so fas,t .it was just tooo hard to say anything but i really wish this was just all a bad night mare but does it end no never ! everything that happened was an accident and i shouldve said something befor you let go of everything, i lost my mindd when yhu left. iloveyhu glenn.

“ I'm going to miss you.. I wonder if there were ever anything I could have done to help you through your pains. You had a smile that compelled other people to smile back.. and bright green eyes that begged for answers to all of life's questions.. eyes full of hope for a peaceful place where you could possess everything your heart's ever desired.

You never met a stranger. You would have given the shirt off of your back to help anyone you knew to be in need. This world wasn't worthy of you.

I love you, brother.. and I'll never stop thinking of football season.. how we'd debate the games throughout the whole game. and most of all.. I'll never stop missing you and thinking of you.

“ I don't even know where to start.... I sit here trying to understand the how and why but I am not making sense of any of it. Glenn the first time Brandon and Samantha brought you to the house and introduced us, I thought you were really adorable. And as I got to know you more you became like one of mine. just like one of mine you got on my nerves from time to time. But that don't mean I loved you any less. As a matter of fact I wish you were here getting on my nerves right now. It would sure be easier to deal with than this. Samantha and I came to the funeral home. But we couldn't pay our respects there. So I am paying them now. I am truly sorry for your mother and fathers loss. I couldn't imagine that kind of pain. I am sorry for you Glenn that your life was cut short. I am truly honored that I was able to get to know you. May you rest in peace sweetheart. We love you and we will forever miss you. LOVE, Malinda, Samantha and Brandon

“ I am sorry to hear about what has happened but always know that, he will be in a better place, glenn's purpose in life is now served, and that purpose is more than we will ever understand, Glenn may not have created something to make life easier or helped anyone out that was obvious, But he did help out a lot of people to think in other ways than they were thinking already, in which he made their life better, they might not even realize the "cause and effect" of being around Glenn at the time or even now but he made an impact that was life altering and I just thought I would say that so people do not think that Glenn's life was wasted, because it was far from wasted, the Lord just used Glenn in a way to help better others lives that were potentially more important for future progression in human life. We will never know for sure until that day comes but that is my opinion & believe it with all my heart. & May Glenn rest in piece & ask him to keep an eye on me while I am waiting for the day we can hang out once again .
(We might not of showed you love at every moment, but I promise, "the love" was always there. I suppose you didn't notice all the people around you that really cares. Even though your life was ended at an early date, Think about the positives of the situation at hand, you didnt have to wait. And while your sittin back relaxin on the beach whistling at the girls, I got to sit here on earth missin you and wonder when is the end of the world.) That was not pre-written, thats from the heart to my buddy buddy "G" money(nickname), he was my homeboy, my brother, someone that will be missed, someone who changed lives, someone that is always goin to be remembered because he is my final inspiration to do what needs to be done, and Glenn knows what that is...."help me out buddy buddy! I promise I'll take care of all the things that you always wish you could of....." Much Love!!!! we love ya!

“ No More Worries...remember? Guess what...you were that inspiration that I said I was looking for that would conclude my building of "the castle in the clouds"...you made it possible, because of your death, my mind ws opened, "dont worry, I got your back buddy buddy, I wont let nothin happen to you buddy buddy."
