“ I have such fond memories of Keith, he always told me I was his favorite redhead. I have always been in awe of the relationships he had with his daughters, they were his everything.

Growing up he was the man who set the bar for the kind of father I wanted my children to have, he was kind and patient and very involved. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Yes, memories are to be treasured. Growing up I recall meeting Keith & Stan half way, Main & University going to their neighborhood to bike ride, family vacations together, I remember sitting around at Uncle Franks & Aunt Mary Ann's table for chili and crackers, Keith telling stories on himself, as we all did, joking and enjoying family & friends. I recall seeing Keith, Jane & girls at Sacred Heart Mass, before I was transferred to Georgia. So many treasured memories. Lord have mercy on the soul of Your servant Keith whom You have summoned from this world & we bid You that he will be numbered among your saints. Till we meet again.

“ I just have to say that the best gift from Keith was bringing Jane, Rachel, and Maggie into my life. His devotion to "Family" is still instilled in me. The holiday breakfasts on East Bishop cooking bacon and eggs were very special as we were the first ones there. He was the "KING" of frugal and taught me well! I will always remember Keith and I will always love him. My dear cousin may you rest in peace and may perpetual light always shine on you.

Love again, Tommy

“ The years pass by so swiftly, but fortunately the memories remain forever. Things like your crazy jokes and ability to always leave me laughing. You had a special gift of humor and when thinking of you this is my fondest memory of all. I hope you tuck your laughter inside your spirit and take to share with others you encounter in your journey. These are tough times and I bet even the angels need a smile put on their faces. A Carrigan smile! That'll do it! Always leave 'em laughing, Keith. You can do it!

Love ya

“ My Uncle Keith was my favorite uncle growing up. He always had a smile for us cousins and would do things with us. I will always remember him for his wood working skills and his outgoing, friendly personality.
