“ I am sorry for your loss. Kim was such a great person. I remember when she loved Def Leppard, she was obsessed with them when we were little.

“ im very sorry for your loss. kim was very cool a hardcore kiss and def leopard fan. She was always very kind to me and had a great sense of humor. I remember coming over to your house and she played the drums and I played the guitar. I was very impressed. I don't know what to say other than I got to spend a little time with her and I am so glad I did. Sometimes I try to imagine all the great musicians in heaven all playing at once perfectly in unison. She is there for the ultimate concert.

“ I met Kimmie through the Eric Carr group she set up on Facebook and we had many great conversations about music, life and faith. She was a lovely, caring, funny, loving and compassionate person who I was proud to call my friend.

I'd planned on visiting Kimmie and Dan if I ever made it across to America but now unfortunately I won't get that opportunity. However I believe I'll meet her and Dan in a better place one day.

My condolences to Kimmie's family and friends, she was a special person who touched many hearts and lives across the world.

Rest in peace Kimmie xx

“ Dear Kimmie .. I was blessed to know you for over 14 years ...

We shared a bound .. we were inspired by the same drummer. But Eric was just the bound to a unique friendship. You were a blessing for every person you touch.

You always gave us hope and words of wisdom.

You touch so many souls. Not only by you passion about Eric but about life. About being good human beings.

Kimmie .. I promise you to keep your legacy and memory on.

To all Kimmie's family ... I'm so sorry for your loss.

Hopefully one day I could give my condolences in person

Love you and miss you.
