In Memory of Mom
Letha Deveen Hash

Passed into glory, January 26, 2007

Will we miss her? Be sure, we will,
Those special shoes, only she could fill.
Our mother, our sister, our friend,

Our hearts weep for the angel on lend.
Mom is gone; yet, we need her still.
Her chair is empty, her absence real.
We would have called to say goodbye
We could not perceive the end was nigh.
We would have hugged Mom one last time,
Persuading God, "She is in her prime!"
Mom faithfully climbed complex hills,
As she prayed for us, and Love prevailed,
Nere a day passed without God's Word
Mom rose early and God's speaking heard.
His Word took root deep in her heart,
She believed God would supply His part.
If God said it, surely was true,
Mom made a life-choice, God to pursue.
God was made real to her children,
Brought to our earth something of heaven.
Her Lord and Savior, arms stretched wide,
His Holy Name was so glorified.
Her secret was the Heaven'ly Well.
Her course was finished, we weep, "Farewell",
Mom chose her Savior, as He led,
A crown of glory awaits her head.
Precious Mom, may you rest in peace,
Asleep in Jesus, where joys nere cease.
Will we miss Mom? Be sure, we will,
Those special shoes, only she could fill.
