“ Learner today Marie went to be with our Lord. Her amazing smile has lite-up heaven. Several years ago I spent Christmas afternoon with Marie as she told me how proud she was to know her Great Grandson was apart of the military. She adored her family, each one of them. Those wonderful holiday gatherings with her, made her day. I have so many memories of her and the trips we took with her senior friends Her first try of guacamole at a restaurant ( she made a face at it, but it turned out to be her favorite new food!!!). I am blessed to have been in her presences, as all those in heaven are today. To the family..keep being the wonderful close loving family you are. To her sister...you are truly the sister anyone would hope for, she loved you so and now she will watch over you. Kimberly Honeycutt,past Activity Director-Creekside
