“ It was a sad moment,for me yesterday, when I heard of Aunt Pauline's passing. She was always my favorit Aunt. My thoughts and prayers are with each and everone of you. I love to think that when she closed her eyes for the last time on this earth, The next breath she took, she was standing before our maker. He opened His arms and welcomed her home. And if reunions are allowed in Heaven, Aunt Pauline is delighted to see Uncle JB, Peggy, Her brother Robert Averitt, and all of her loved ones that I know that she has missed. May the Lord bring comfort to each and everyone of you. I have missed her for quiet some time now,now that I know that she resides with the Lord,my heart can accept that she has been made new again, May God bless you,Dot

“ If you needed a hug, she was your gal.
If you needed to cry, she was your pal.
But making her mad, you didn't want to do.
Cause that little woman'd be all over you.

She'd give you the shirt, right off of her back.
When you were moving she'd help you pack.
She'd keep your secret, deep in her heart.
And no matter what it never would part.

Now she's gone home, to be with JB
When she reaches the gate that is who she'll see.
Together through life, no longer they'll wait.
I know JB's waiting for her at the gate.

They'll stand in God's light as at them He'll smile,
And then hand in hand they'll walk the last mile.
We'll all feel fronlorn, she's left us alone,
But heavens rejoicing, their angel came home.

We love you Paulene, thanks for the memories
