“ Martha,

I am so very sorry to hear about your mother. I didn't know until today, I was looking back at the obituaries and just happened to see the way the last name was spelled. I never knew her first name was Sarah, I always knew her as Ms Libby.

I do hope you and Carol and Jerry are doing ok. May the arms of God wrap around the 3 of you and keep you. You know you're mom and dad have had a wonderful reunion as well as the other family members.

If there's anything we can do just please let us know.

We'll keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I first met this wonderful lady at Darwin's and loved her almost from the first moment. She and Johnnie were a great couple and made an even greater family. I have wonderful, precious memories of Libby and her family that I've treasured for over fifty years.

Our prayers are lifted up for her family to be embraced with comfort and peace knowing that she leaves this place, made far better by her presence and goes to a place far better to await our grand reunion. My God continue His mighty blessing in your lives always.

“ I first met her at Darwin's and loved her as a very special person almost immediately. She and Johnnie were a great couple that made a greater family. There are so many wonderful memories that I have treasured for over fifty years of this very special lady and her family.

Our prayers are lifted up for all her family, that comfort and peace will embrace them now and always, knowing that she leaves a place made better by her beautiful smile and bubbly personality, for a far better place and we will see her again.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Baba was a very special lady and had a very special place in CoCo's heart ever since he was just a baby. Many prayers for the family.

“ Dear Carol, so sorry for the loss of your Mom. I know you will have a difficult time, but allow those around you to give you comfort.

I did not know you and Rita Hollandsworth were cousins. She and I were the best of friends during our growing up at Kittrell School and Science Hill Church of Christ. It is a small world, after so many years, to read the similarities in our lives.

Your Mom was a very special lady. I have many memories of coming to your house on Noethfield. Seems like another lifetime ago.

Prayers to you all.
