“ I had taken Momma to the Dr. one day and afterwards she wanted to go to lunch. We were in the elevator and she was acting silly doing hand motions about wanting to eat and the other woman in the elevator actually looked at me and said "Bless her heart. You make sure you take her to eat". She thought mom was mentally challenged. When I had to explain that to mom, we both just laughed our butts off. From then on when ever I said "Bless her heart" to her she would threaten to slap me, but we would both just bust out laughing about it.

I miss you so much mom!! I love you!

“ Sharon could be so silly! When at my house in Oklahoma she would play with my Savannah cat Luna in the shower... Luna was in between the shower curtain on the side of the tub trying to trick Sharon, and Sharon would squirt Luna with the shower hose! All you heard was laughter, and all you saw was a wet cat!!! They had so much fun together for two months this went on!
