“ Tonya, you have been a part of my life for over 15yrs. I've seen your talents, your love, your friendship, and your dedication. You always worked so hard. Always the first to volunteer to help. There are so many that will miss you . It's so very hard to believe your gone. I know your with Jesus, he knows your heart like no one here could possibly fathom, he loves you and will take it from here. God Bless your family and friends, all who loved you.

“ My heart aches for your Mom, Sonya, your boys and family. Tonya you were always a joy to be around always smiling and making the world around you brighter. Now you've got your angel wings and your dancing on those golden streets around the throne. You were your mom's best friend, you two grew up together and she's going to need some extra love, comfort and support. You'll truly be missed by many. Thank you for years ago filling a whole in my heart with your love...

“ My sweet Tonya you were such a beautiful lil girl when I first met you and years later I had the privilege of seeing you at your reception wow what a beautiful lady you turned out to be with such a big heart and lots of love for family and friends. Your boys are awesome and I know they will miss you so much as will your husband and mom and brother. The pain of losing you has hit the family hard but to know that Heaven is so beautiful with Gods newest Angel. Plz keep your wings around your mom as I know she will need them to get thru this.
