“ I considered Bill my best friend. I had found someone who understood my dry sense of humor and shared my love for music. Bill would bring his records and tapes to my house and we would transfer them onto CDs. We spent a lot of time sight seeing and just talking and that usually involved eating out.

Bill was an outdoors person and I am not. He tried to make me a fisherman, but did not. That was one thing we did not have in common, but we worked around that and found other common interest.

I miss my friend. I miss having someone to hang out with. The last message I had on my phone from Bill was "Are we still on for breakfast, Give me a call." It is so sad, we never made that breakfast.

The 4 of us were friends.. Bill, Carolee, Starr and me. We went to movies and dined out and usually that included ice cream. We could always just be our selves. Did not have to pretend to be something you were not. We could laugh and joke because Bill always understood my humor.

Starr and I both miss Bill and will for a long time.

“ I remember meeting Bill several years ago as I started working in the Comcast Murfreesboro office. He would pull up in the drive thru to say hi to Carolee, sometimes bringing her something to eat. This was when Chris was still in high school. Sometimes he would wait at the back door by my office to pick Carolee up and I would go out and talk to him. He was always working at something - landscaping, fishing, gardening, cutting down trees, etc. The man was never idle. And, he was always smiling and happy.

At some point a couple of years ago, Bill and Chuck met and found they shared an interest in music. Bill would go to our home in Gallatin and he and Chuck would work on putting Bill's tapes and records on CD's. They both liked to eat, so getting together always meant sharing a meal somewhere. Chuck said he finally met someone who understood his humor and whatever was said between Bill & Chuck stayed with Bill & Chuck. Bill could never understand why Chuck didn't like to fish and since Chuck doesn't even like to eat fish he never understood the big thing about fishing! Chuck's last cell message from Bill was about them getting together in a couple of days.

The 4 of us liked to go to dinner and a movie and top off the evening with icecream which we did the weekend before he passed. We laughed, talked, and knew we would see each other soon for Bill's birthday.

Bill always spoke of Carolee as his beautiful bride and even after 43 years of marriage it was always obvious she was the love of his life. He liked picking her up for lunch and stayed in touch with her through out the day. Bill spoke of everyone in his family - they were all the center of his life. He was a really good man and we will really miss him.

“ Dear Kalem, Elijah, Seth, and Claire,
I am so very sorry that you have lost your Grandpa. Words cannot express my sorrow for all of you.
Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.
Keep those memories forever close to your heart.
My Love & Prayers,
Aunt Judy

“ Carolee, Becky, Will, Jennifer & Chris,
I cannot express how very sorry I am. My thoughts and prayers are for you and although Bill is no longer here, may you find peace and comfort during this difficult time.
God Bless You and Keep You Comforted In His Loving Arms.
My Love To You All,
Aunt Judy

“ I haven't known Bill as long as most, but for the 2 years that we did know each other it felt like 20. He was a wonderful person and always thought about others. As everyone else I will miss Bill and wish he was still here to go and fish with.

“ We meet when Bill and Carolee moved to Pennsylvania 28 yrs ago, and became great friends. Bill became my older brother, and Carolee my sister. We shared a lots of laughs, and tears over the years, but you going home so soon is the hardest. I pray that Carolee, Becky, Jennifer, Will, and Chris will find peace and comfort. That they can always share stories of Bill, for if they can, they truly have not lost him. Love your Brother, Uncle Todd

“ I became friends with Bill and Carolee years ago when I first moved to Tennessee. They are two of the sweetest people you'd meet and made such a perfect couple. They matched each other and set an example of what anyone should want in a relationship. Bill was an easy man to love and will be missed dearly everywhere he's touched. I know with his loving personality he has touched many peoples lives. He will truly be missed. My prayers of peace and understanding are with you Carolee and your family.

“ Although we had lost contact over the years, I fondly remember Bill and his friendship during our college days, visiting with Carolee and him, and going fishing before dawn on Percy Priest. Bill was a good man and will be missed, and I hope to see him again some day when I'm called home. My sympathy goes out to Carolee and to all the family.

“ After more than 40 years, nothing can truly tear us apart, not even "Going Home"My knight in not so shining armor as we laughed about many times. Bill or "My Bill" as I wrote on every card could do almost anything. Play ball, fish, hunt, landscape, paint, the list is endless. He had a way of filling every inch of space and never let life get boring. We had a wonderful "Roller Coaster Ride" through life together. No one will miss him more than I will, and no one can ever take his place. He is the love of my life. We shared every experience life could possibly hold together. We lived, laughed, loved, cried, hurt, at times were angry, and then made up every time as we somehow couldn't be apart. The years go quickly, so it is good to know there is an eternity waiting for us to share, as we both believe strongly that Families Are Forever!!. He has always been used to waiting on me, and always said if he goes first, he will be waiting on me. I will never stop loving him. MY BILL

“ Love's Light
 Dedicated to Beckie, Carolee & the Weller family- by Nicole Watmuff Feb 12th,2011
 Although the sun shines the days aren't bright
 You continue on even though the strength is not there
 Someone has left and taken part of your light
 All seems gone that they used to share
 But in this time of loss and grief
 When happiness seems hidden from your sight
 And their time, no matter how long, seems too brief
 Their memories will build your strength to fight
 For memories are shards of your hidden light
 Your hidden happiness resides within
 Do not let its' glow dim without a fight
 Let the memories flow and the healing begin
 And know that their spirit is within you all
 In the knowledge they shared and the love they've given
 The time they spent with joyous smiles and laughs so jovial
 As well as advice they've bestowed and wrongs that were forgiven
 Although the clouds that surround you seem to blanket all
 You will find a way to fight through them once more
 Always remember the things, no matter how small
 And allow your heart to soar as it has done before
 So even though not everything is within our control
 We can fight through the clouds and release love's light
 Cherish the memories and carry them within your soul
 Although hidden from our eyes their love's light still shines bright

“ I got to know Bill while working at the Wal-Mart Distribution Center in Shelbyville. He was such a wonderful person, always kind & generous. He also did some landscaping for my husband & myself at a couple of different places we lived, and he did very beautiful landscaping. He was very talented. He will be sadly missed. He always put others before himself, and it's very rare to find a person like that these days. Bill, may you rest in peace.

“ I've known Bill since his daughter Beckie & I were 16 when they lived in Pa. Bill was a very congenial and loving man with always a kind word. When my daughter, husband & I visited there were hugs for all and were treated like we were a common facet of his families daily life. He will forever be in our thoughts and hearts. All our love to the entire family.

“ Sincere condolences to all of Bill's family and fiends, especially to Beckie and her boys. I work with Beckie, and I'd worked with her father for a number of years. I'm saddened by his early departure and will miss his ready and friendly smile. He will be missed. God Bless.

“ One of the memories I can remember as a small child is fishing with my dad and my uncle. We were on a dam and I caught a very small sunfish, no bigger than a silver dollar. The tiny fish got off of the hook and was floppy on the ground, and I was determined to catch it. So as I chased the fish on the ground with only one thought in my mind....."get the fish before it gets to the water!" I had no other thought in my mind. I was maybe three years old at that time. It was the month of March and very cold outside. Well, needless to say, I followed my fish over the dam. I remember being under the water and looking up as I started to sink, wondering how I was going to get out of the water. All of a sudden I remember being scooped up, coughing and choking on the swallowed water, but I was saved! My dad jumped into the frigid waters to save me. Of course my tiny fish I was so very proud of, got away! My dad was my hero. I love you Dad, you will be missed each and every day.
